LEADERSHIP IN A NEW ERA: Looking toward General Synod 2020

As the RCA anticipates, in the years ahead, continued conversation and changes in a number of areas of mutual life, ministry, and mission, the question for congregational, classis, and denominational leaders is “How do I want to show up in the face of disagreement?”

As the RCA's Vision 2020 Team has been accomplishing their work, they requested the various regions of the RCA host a learning event to converse about that question, to hear what the Vision Team has been working on, and to invite feedback for the team. You're invited to share in this learning and conversation within RSNY and RSMAt at two different locations/times. The same content and conversation starters will take place at both events, with Jim Herrington and Trisha Taylor facilitating. These events are being offered free of cost for all RCA leaders and congregants. Delegates to General Synod 2020 are highly encouraged to attend this learning event.

Questions can be directed to newyorksynod@gmail.com and/or rsmat@rca.org
